Eloise Walker Anderson Teacher Scholarship

The Eloise Walker Anderson Teacher Scholarship is an opportunity for college-bound seniors who graduate from Seneca High School and are interested in pursuing a career in education. The scholarship was created in 2009 to honor the memory of Eloise. A $500 scholarship will be awarded to a student entering the field of education. Eloise was a long time resident of Seneca and was very interested in the field of education.

Applicants interested in applying for the scholarship must meet the following criteria:

- Must be a senior at Seneca High School
- Must plan to enroll in a two or four-year college or university and major in education
- Must write an essay answering the question "Why do I want to be a teacher?"

Applications are available beginning in February of each year and are due on April 6th. Scholarship winners will be announced at the senior award ceremony at the high school in May.
